Retail Park in Umhlanga Central

Outlet Park is a new retail and mini factory retail park situated in the New Town Centre of Umhlanga close to the Gateway shopping centre. The retail park will take advantage of its prime road frontage onto Meridian Drive. The Site is located adjacent to PORSCHE and is located within an area of dense new residential and commercial property development.

The development has already shown huge success with all the units being sold off-plan. The construction of the retail park is due to be completed end of 2013. Some of the investors in the Outlet Park development include end users such as The Golfers Club, major surf clothing...
